

NCBCA
February 3, 2021
Minutes of Zoom Meeting
1 PM (ET)

1. Introductions- In attendance were Joyce Forbes, Kim Vaundry, Stephanie Murphy, Mindie Colanese, Craig Langhofer, Rosie Michiaels, Nancy Wickizer, Peg Adams, Chris Marbach, Jim Masters, Amy Schrock, Sandy Raabe, Henry Timm, Trudy Menke
2. Atty. James Jorgensen Senior Partner at Hoepfner Wagner & Evans LLP gave an update on the Biden Administration Outlook re: Human Resources Management. In general he discussed issues such as labor relations, independent contractors, pay equity, paid time off, and a raise in the minimum wage and exempt salary test. For more details, see the slides that were sent out after the meeting.
3. Approval Minutes – January 6, 2021 Motion to approve-Mindie Colanese. Second-Henry Timm. Motion carried.
4. Approval – Treasurer Report given by Sandy Raabe Current account balance $3213.56. Motion to approve-Rosie Michiaels Second-Nancy Wickizer. Motion carried.
5. Membership Update – Peg Adams. Currently 23 members. Memberships continue to come in.
6. Focus Group – Trudy Menke and Joyce Forbes informed members that we would continue with the new format of having the speaker go first out of respect for their time. The new time for giving updates on your organization will be at the end of the meeting.

Additionally, it's recommended that the organization have one event per year as a fundraiser and that NCBCA should continue to sponsor Hometown Days and one additional charity per year.

7. Town Update-none given
8. Upcoming Events –

Methodist Church-Swiss Steak Drive-thru dinner April 16. $10. You can order now by calling 654-7442.

Rosie Michiaels-still a shortage of houses for sale.

Rosie & Mindie-mortgage rates remain very low with 15 year rates at 2.25%

Jim Masters, Attorney at Law- contrary to rumors, there is, in fact an attorney in New Carlisle. He is in his office on Michigan Ave. most Wednesdays.

Peg Adams-is teaching a genealogy class.

New Carlisle Olive Township Library-Hosting with Historic New Carlisle and exhibit at the library from Indiana Historical Society on Hoosiers and their Hooch, a history of prohibition in Indiana.

Kim Vaundry-Hometown Days is being planned for July 23-25. The car show will be its own thing that weekend sponsored by the American Legion and Black Sheep Group. Koby Keck will speak at this group at a future date for more updates.

9. Other Business

10. Adjourn